Mysuru-Bengaluru 10-lane Expressway

Toll collection to begin from October 2022

Elevated toll booths built after Srirangapatna and near Bidadi

One of the toll plazas on Mysuru-Bengaluru Highway being readied.

Mysuru, Mar. 30 (RK&BCT)- The introduction of tolls on new roads that facilitate travel is a nationwide arrangement. Likewise, works are in full swing to set up two toll plazas on the Mysuru-Bengaluru 10-lane National Highway (NH-275) that is being developed as an economic corridor.

The 117-km road, being built at a cost of Rs. 8,350 crore, will be fully operational by October this year and the same has been confirmed by Union Minister for Road Transport and Highways Nitin Gadkari, who has predicted the travel time between the two cities at 75 minutes.

Two toll booths are being built along the Highway on elevated stretches. Works are in full swing and the plazas will be operational with all high-tech toll systems and FASTag facility by the time the road works are completed.

While one toll booth is coming up near Ganaguru after Srirangapatna near K. Shettihalli, the second toll plaza is coming up at Kannaminaki near Bidadi. At Kannaminaki, there are two plazas for onward and return journeys and toll will be levied. In all, there are three toll plazas but toll will be collected only at two places, a top officer from National Highways Authority of India (NHAI) clarified.

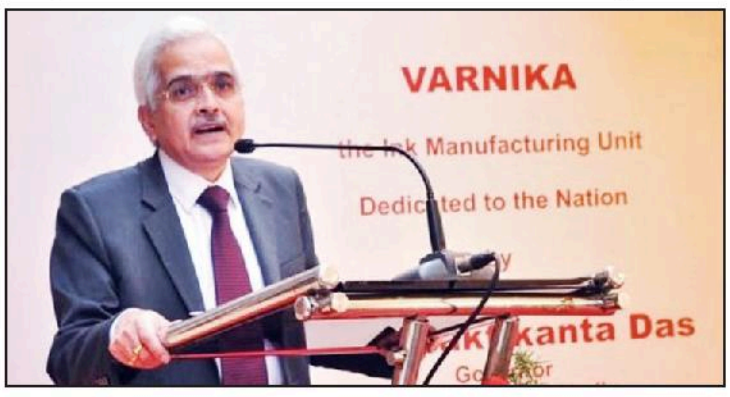
RBI Governor opens Bank Note Ink Unit in Mysuru

Lays foundation stone for Learning and Development Centre



RBI Governor Shaktikanta Das addressing the gathering after inaugurating 'Varnika,' the Ink Manufacturing Unit of BRBNMPL in Mysuru on Mar. 28.

Mysuru, Mar. 30 (BCT)- Reserve Bank of India (RBI) Governor Shaktikanta Das was on a visit to Mysuru on Mar. 28 where he dedicated 'Varnika,' the Ink Manufacturing Unit of Bharatiya Reserve Bank Note Mudran Private Limited (BRBNMPL), to the nation. BRBNMPL has set up 'Varnika' with an annual ink manufacturing capacity of 1,500 MT to enhance the security of bank notes. It is a boost to the 'Make in India' initiative. It ensures that the entire requirement of bank note printing inks is produced in-house.

This unit also manufactures Colour Shift Intaglio Ink (CSII) and meets the entire requirements of bank note printing presses in India, which has resulted in cost-efficiency and self-sufficiency in bank note ink production. The Governor also laid the foundation stone for the establishment of a Learning and Development Centre (LDC) of the BRBNMPL.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

THREE SOURCES OF INCOME: To learn why inequality fell during the pandemic, we examined three sources of household income: Government transfers, business profits and labour income. Government transfers are cash or in-kind payments. Profits may be from any business, be it a food cart, a farm, or a manufacturing plant. Labour income is wages earned from hourly work or employment contracts. Government payments to the poor cannot explain the decline in inequality. To be sure, income support was not insubstantial. Households received roughly Rs. 400 per month in urban areas and nearly Rs. 500 per month in rural areas during the lockdown and the Delta wave. They received roughly half that much during the rest of the pandemic. However, even when Government transfers were netted out from income, income inequality fell by over 20% points by July 2021.

Business profits play a bigger role than transfers. The rich saw a larger decline in business income and depended more on that income than the poor. While just 7% of a bottom quartile household's income is from a business, nearly 15% of a top quartile's household's income is from a business. Unlike labour income, business income is volatile because it is susceptible to changes in demand, and thus to aggregate income. We find that business income of the top quartile is four times more sensitive to the aggregate performance of the economy than the business income of the bottom quartile. Given the large negative effect of COVID-19 on the economy, this suggests that some of the disproportionate losses of the rich operate through business income.

Man's 'Stolen Bicycles' stash seen on Google Earth

Oxfordshire: An Oxfordshire man in England is currently being investigated about a pile of over 500 bicycles in his backyard, a stash so big it can be literally seen on Google Earth.

A 54-year-old man was arrested earlier this month after people in his Oxfordshire neighborhood started complaining that his bicycle-filled backyard had become a breeding ground for rats. However, when authorities stopped by the man's home, they expected to find a few bicycles, but nowhere near as many as 500 of them piled on top of each other.

The heap of old bikes has apparently been growing at a steady pace for over 5 years and it has now gotten so big that it can be seen on Google Earth satellite imagery.

10.8 cm-long tongue may be world's longest

Thiruthanga: A man from Thiruthangal in Virudhunagar of Tamil Nadu, who has a 10.8-centimeter-long tongue, according to the India Book of Records may be the world's longest.

According to the University of Edinburgh, the average human male tongue is around 8.5-cm-long, which makes 21-year-old K Praveen's tongue over 2.5cm longer and probably the longest in the world. The young robotics student has known that his tongue was longer than usual ever since he started showing friends and family what he could do with it. And by that we mean touching the tip of his nose and his elbow with it and almost touching his eyes.

Due to a lack of funds, he has not been able to get his tongue officially measured by Guinness Records, but he did get his name in India's own Limca Book of Records, for having the longest tongue in the country.

However, as trade routes opened up, silk expanded to international markets via what was later known as the Silk Road. Exclusive hawker zones for roadside vendors earmarked at three places

MCC holds capacity building training programme for street vendors

Mysuru, Mar. 30 (RKB&KS)- "For the benefit of roadside vendors, exclusive hawker zones will be established at three places in city for which the Government has approved Rs. 2.97 crore out of which 50 percent of the grant has been released," said Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) Commissioner G. Lakshmikantha Reddy.

He was speaking during the inauguration of the two-day capacity building training programme for roadside vendors held under Deendayal Antyodaya Yojana-National Urban Livelihoods Mission (DAY-NULM) at Vidyashankar Kalyana Mantap in city on Monday.

Continuing, Reddy said that hawker zones will be established in all nine zones of the MCC and a proposal has been sent to the Government. "The Government has approved three hawker zones for this year and has released the grant. Hence, tenders have been called for the establishment of three hawker zones including the one near Ballal Circle. Once the tender process is completed, establishment of the three hawker zones would be taken up," he said.

Inaugurating the programme, In-charge Mayor Sunanda Palanetra said, the training is being imparted for the benefit of roadside vendors and called upon them to follow the guidelines and rules of the MCC and co-operate with the civic body for their development.

Senior Civil Judge and District Legal Services Authority (DLSA) Member-Secretary Devaraj Bhoote, who was the chief guest, said that following Supreme Court directive, a law has been formulated for the livelihood of roadside vendors and added that the MCC has come forward for its effective implementation.

Push-cart vendors, small hotels and other street vendors should be identified by conducting a survey and they should be allowed to conduct business by following certain conditions for which the roadside vendors should obtain consent from the MCC and conduct business, the Civil Judge said.

Additional DC (Revenue) M.J. Roopa and other MCC officials were present.

It may be recalled that the MCC had already built a Hawker Zone at Ashoka Circle, popular as Ballal Circle in November 2017 itself and the MCC had completed the construction of platforms with basic amenities for vendors (mostly food vendors) to set up stalls. This exclusive hawker zone has drinking water, parking and proper waste disposal facilities. Even a toilet complex has been constructed for the benefit of all. The plan to construct dedicated hawker zones was mooted in 2004 and a six-member Committee was constituted to identify the spots after a survey.

Prof. K.S. Narayanacharya propagated religion without fear: Junior Swamiji

Mysuru, Mar. 30 (PM&TRR)- "Prof. Narayanacharya who was a senior scholar of the State had faith in truth and religion and because of this God had given him protection which enabled him to fearlessly propagate the religion and the related matters," said Sri Ganapathy Sachchidananda Ashram Junior Pontiff Sri Datta Vijayananda Theertha Swamiji. He was speaking at 'Namami Narayanam: Acharya Smarane,' a tribute programme in memory of scholar late Prof. K.S. Narayanacharya at Sarada Vilas Centenary Hall in Krishnamurthypuram on Sunday.

Sri Datta Vijayananda Theertha Swamiji, Prof. Bashyam Swamiji, former MLC G. Madhusudhan and others seen during the tribute programme in memory of scholar late Prof. K.S. Narayanacharya in city on Sunday.

"Prof. Narayanacharya used to fearlessly propagate the ideals of religion. He was not a senior just because of his age, he was a senior in knowledge and tapasya. He practiced what he preached," the Junior Pontiff said and added that we need to be always grateful for those who helped us and in this regard Prof. Narayanacharya should be remembered not every day but every moment. The Seer thanked the organisers for arranging this function to pay tribute to the Professor.

Journalist Hariprakash Konemane, who also spoke, felt that Prof. Narayanacharya should have been conferred with Padma award. "He had an in-depth knowledge of Indian culture, history, its past and present and used to effectively communicate them to his audience and readers and hence, he deserves Padma award. But he never craved for the award by submitting an application for it. Those in responsible positions should have understood this," he added.

Website launched

Hariprakash launched the upgraded website on Prof. Narayanacharya. The recorded audio cassette of the fourth and final series of discourses on 'Sri Sampoorna Ramayana' by Prof. Narayanacharya in Mysuru city was released by Divakar Hegde of Mysuru Akashvani.

Padma Shri awardee and Sudharma Sanskrit Daily Editor Jayalakshmi Sampath Kumar and senior advocate C.V. Keshavamurthy were honoured on the occasion. Prof. Bashyam Swamiji of Sri Yoganarasimhaswamy Temple, MLA S.A. Ramdas, MUDA Chairman H.V. Rajeev, former MLC G. Madhusudan were present. Dr. Shalva Pille Iyengar, Chairman, Dept. of Ancient History & Archaeology, KSOU, recalled his association with Prof. Narayanacharya.

Gun licence exemption to Kodavas: Supreme Court agrees to hear plea; seeks State response

New Delhi, Mar. 30 (Agencies)- The Supreme Court (SC) yesterday sought the Karnataka Government's response in a plea filed against a High Court (HC) verdict which had upheld the validity of the exemption granted to members of the Kodava community and Jamma tenure holders to carry and possess firearms without a licence.

A Bench comprising Chief Justice of India N.V. Ramana, Justice Krishna Murari and Justice Hima Kohli was hearing a plea submitted by retired Army officer Captain Yaladalu Keshavananda Chethan.

On Oct. 29, 2019, a notification by the Ministry of Home Affairs had exempted the Kodava community and Jamma tenure holders from some of the provisions of the Arms Act, 1959.

"The arms or ammunition carried or possessed by any person being Coorg by race and every Jamma tenure holder in Coorg, and herein exempted whilst residing or travelling outside the district of Coorg shall not exceed one rifle with 100 rounds of ammunition for the same and one smoothbore breech or muzzle-loading gun with 500 cartridges or the equivalent in leaden shot and gunpowder," the Union Ministry of Home Affairs stated.

In a petition filed in the Karnataka High Court, Chethan had sought to know why only one community was given this exemption. Senior counsels appearing for the Kodava community had argued that the exemption had been since British ruled India.

The High Court Bench of Justices Satish Chandra Sharma and S.S. Magadum had upheld the Government notification and validated the exemption. Chethan had then challenged this verdict in the Supreme Court.

According to the petitioner, the High Court, without applying the test of essential religious/cultural practices, has held that possessing guns is an integral part of the cultural and religious practices of the Kodava community.

The High Court had said: "The Kodava community which is a martial community and Jamma tenure holders are enjoying the benefit of exemption since pre-independence. They have rightly been granted an exemption for a period of ten years, it is not the case they have been granted exemption indefinitely. The exemption granted is subject to certain terms and conditions. Therefore, the Constitutional validity of the notification is upheld in the petition."

"The exemption provided to the persons of Coorg race and Jamma tenure holders under Section 41 of the Arms Act, satisfies the test of reasonable classification under Article 14 of the Constitution of India and the question of questioning the notification dated Oct. 29, 2019, does not arise," the High Court Bench had said.

BJP will return to power with 140-plus seats: Former CM Yediyurappa

Mysuru, Mar. 30 (RKB&DM)- Former Chief Minister and senior BJP leader B.S. Yediyurappa (BSY) asserted that the BJP would return to power with a thumping majority by winning more than 140 seats in the forthcoming Assembly polls.

He was speaking to press-persons at Suttur Mutt here this morning, where he sought the blessings of Sri Shivarathri Deshikendra Swamiji and had breakfast there. BSY had arrived in the city last evening and stayed overnight.

Lashing out at the Opposition Congress for making baseless charges against the BJP, Yediyurappa maintained that there is a BJP wave in the State and the Congress is disturbed over it. Stating that he will undertake a tour of the entire State after Apr.1 for organisation of the party, the former CM said he was happy that the party workers have been successful in delivering the benefits of various State and Central Government schemes to the doorsteps of beneficiaries, which is crucial for the poll success of a party.

When asked about the chances of poll advancement in the State, BSY said that there is no such move and such speculations will arise whenever Amit Shah happens to visit the State.

Replying to a question on change of leadership, Yediyurappa said that there is no change and Basavaraj Bommai will continue as the CM.

BSY visits Suttur Mutt, seeks Seer's blessings

"Bommai will lead the party in the coming Assembly polls and no one need to have any doubt regarding this. All speculations regarding change of leadership are baseless and there is no need to pay heed for them," he said.

When asked about BJP's strategy for Karnataka polls, in the wake of the party's recent poll success in five States, BSY said that the party will have to strategies on taking along all communities coming under SC/ST and OBC categories on a much larger scale.

Arguing that women empowerment is also crucial for poll success, the ex-CM said the party will work towards making the initiative cent percent successful. Stating that 'Nari Shakti' is a crucial factor, he said the BJP Government has done more for empowerment of women than any Government in the past.

Former MP C.H. Vijayashankar, Karnataka Safai Karmachari Commission Chairman Shivanna, Chairmen of various Boards and Corporations — H.V. Rajeev, Ka.Pu. Siddalingaswamy, Hemanth Kumar Gowda and L.R. Mahadevaswamy — in-charge Mayor Sunanda Palanetra, Corporators B.V. Manjunath, M.V. Ramprasad and Lakshmi Kiran Madegowda, City BJP President T.S. Srivatsa, District President Mangala Somashekar, party leaders M. Rajendra, M.V. Ravishankar, Kautilya Raghu and other leaders were present.

The LDC is being established with active collaboration from Security Printing and Minting Corporation of India Limited (SPMCIL), a wholly owned Schedule 'A' Miniratna Category-I company of Government of India and Bank Note Paper Mill India Private Limited (BNPMIPL), a joint venture of BRBNMPL and SPMCIL.

The LDC will act as a forum for robust knowledge dissemination, thus ensuring that the best practices, experiences and innovations are shared efficiently in a congenial environment to ensure uniformity in bank note production, quality and supply. This centre will be governed by BRBNMPL.

Self-sufficiency in bank note manufacturing

In his address, Shaktikanta Das emphasised the importance of building capacity to achieve 100 percent self-sufficiency in bank note manufacturing in the country.

He recognised the substantial progress made towards achieving self-reliance in the bank note production ecosystem in India and emphasised the importance of continuously building capacity (in terms people, process, and technology), research and development and innovation to achieve 100 percent self-sufficiency in bank note manufacturing in the near future.

Further, commissioning of varnish plant for manufacturing different types of varnishes and production of medium and special additives indigenously in-house has helped the currency ecosystem in achieving twofold goals of cost-efficiency and reduced import dependency, he noted.

"This is in line with India's march towards achieving complete self-reliance to commence manufacturing of all critical and key raw materials used in printing bank notes," he added.

The event was attended by Executive Director of RBI Jose K. Kattoor, Managing Director of BRBNMPL Manas Ranjan Mohanty, Managing Director of BNPMIPL K.G. Viswanathan, Government officials, senior officials from State Bank of India, officers and staff of BRBNMPL and BNPMIPL.

Toll collection from October

When asked about the toll rates, the officer said that as of now, the toll has not been decided. "The road works have to be completed and only later the total project cost, number of passing vehicles, toll rates for all category vehicles will be decided. It is premature to discuss the toll now," he said.

Meanwhile, the NHAI has enforced toll collection on Nanjangud Toll Plaza near Kadakola via National Highway-212 (now renamed as NH-766). The Mysuru-Nanjangud Road touches Ooty, Mysuru-T. Narasipur Road touches Kollegal and Tamil Nadu and Gundlupet-Moolehole Road touches Kerala. All these roads are part of NH-766 (earlier NH-212) that has now become a toll road.

The toll system has been enforced at the toll plazas at Kadakola (K.N. Hundi, Nanjangud), Yedadore on the T. Narasipur Road and Kannegala at Gundlupet.

Rahul Gandhi, Amit Shah on two-day Karnataka tour

Both leaders to visit Siddaganga Mutt separately on Mar. 31 and Apr.1

Tumakuru, Mar.30 - With the State Assembly polls less than a year away, Union Home Minister Amit Shah and top Congress leader Rahul Gandhi will be visiting the politically influential Siddaganga Mutt, as part of the 115th birth anniversary celebrations of the Mutt's late Seer Dr. Shivakumara Swamiji, who was widely known as the Walking God.

Both Rahul Gandhi and Amit Shah will be on a two-day tour of the State on Mar. 31 and Apr.1. While Rahul is scheduled to visit the Mutt at Tumakuru tomorrow Shah will visit the Mutt on Apr.1.

The Congress, which fared badly in the Assembly elections held for five States recently, is expected to receive a boost in the

Rahul Gandhi Amit Shah

State, with Rahul Gandhi's visit, which coincides with the visit of top BJP leader.

During his visit to Siddaganga Mutt tomorrow morning, Rahul will perform special puja to the 'Gadduge' of the late Seer and offer prayers to Lord Siddalingeshwara. The Congress leader will also receive Prasada at the Mutt, before leaving for Bengaluru in the afternoon.

On Apr.1, Rahul will address senior party leaders at the KPCC Office on Queens Road, where he will discuss the probability of advancement of Assembly polls, the party's preparedness and the strategies to be adopted for successfully taking on the ruling BJP.

Shah to visit Siddaganga Mutt on Apr.1

Union Home Minister Amit Shah will visit Siddaganga Mutt on Apr.1 and take part in the 115th birth anniversary celebrations of the Swamiji. With the visits of Rahul and Shah, the Mutt seems to become a venue for show of strength between the Congress and the BJP, as thousands of party workers are expected to turn up at the Mutt on the day of the visit of their respective party leaders.

Amit Shah to meet BSY

Bengaluru, Mar. 30 (KMS&DM)- Amid reports that former Chief Minister B.S.Yediyurappa (BSY) is being slowly sidelined by the BJP top brass, Union Home Minister Amit Shah will meet Yediyurappa in a closed door meeting that is to take place between 1.15 pm and 1.45 pm on Apr.1, when Shah is expected to participate in the State BJP Core Committee meeting at Hotel Taj West End in the State capital the same day.

Taking a break from the Core Committee meeting, the two top BJP leaders will hold a one-to-one meeting for half-an-hour.

The meeting assumes significance in the backdrop of BSY's consistent but failed efforts to make his younger son B.Y. Vijayendra, one of the State BJP's Vice-Presidents, a Minister in the Bommai cabinet.

Shah, who has realised the potential of BSY as a mass leader of the party, is expected to convince the former CM, who has stayed aloof for some time now, to continue giving his valuable suggestions and evolving strategies to fight the Assembly polls, which is just a year away.

Shah, who has given time for his meeting with BSY, has not given time for meeting any other BJP leader of the State and as such, the Union Home Minister's meeting with the former CM has become all the more significant, considering that the BJP top brass is said to be not sure about the capability of the present BJP leadership in Karnataka to ensure the party's resolute victory in the 2023 Assembly polls.

Cycle rally marks TB DAY

Mysuru, Mar. 30 (MTY&SSM)- District Health and Family Welfare Department, in association with District Tuberculosis (TB) Control Centre, had organised a cycle rally in city this morning to mark 'World TB Day.' World Health Organisation (WHO) theme of World TB Day-2022 is 'Invest to End TB. Save Lives.'

Over 80 Health staff and volunteers took part in the 5-km rally which was flagged off by District Health Officer (DHO) Dr. K.H. Prasad in front of Kote Anjaneyaswamy Temple, Palace North Gate. The DHO said: "Mysuru district every year reports over 4,000 new TB cases. 3,700 TB cases were detected last year. In all, 8-10% of people — nearly 360 people — in the district are dying due to TB," he said.

Stating that one TB infected patient can spread it to 40 people, he said that people who have cough for more than 15 days even after taking antibiotic must immediately visit nearby hospitals and get tested. They must undergo rapid sputum tests where the results will come in 2 to 3 days. There are CBNAAT instruments in K.R. and Epidemic Diseases Hospitals which helps in detection of TB immediately."

"The severity of TB is categorised in three phases. People who are detected with Phase-I TB must be treated for 6 months while people who are detected with Phase-II and III must be treated continuously for 6 to 9 months. People with Phase-I can be cured at the earliest if they receive treatment strictly for 3 months continuously. Whoever is detected positive for TB will be monitored just like COVID patients. All the people in contact with TB infected person will be traced, tested and treated if found infected," he explained.

Reasoning about why there is an increase in the number of TB cases, DHO said: "Infected people take treatment for two months and stop the treatment soon they find slight improvement in health. This increases chances of re-infection which is even more dangerous. Such people need higher antibiotics which costs up to Rs. 1 lakh. Usually, the treatment must be taken for 6 to 9 months. The Health Department is ready to treat such patients," he continued.

"Nikshay Poshan Yojana is a Central Govt. Scheme that provides Rs. 500 per month for TB patients. Consulting doctors immediately helps in reducing the spread of TB. People should be aware of the disease and create awareness about the same to eliminate TB from the country by 2025," DHO said.

Department of Health & Family Welfare-Divisional Jt. Director Dr. M.R. Udaykumar, District TB Control Officer Dr. Mohammed Shiraz Ahmed and Reproductive and Child Health Officer (RCHO) Dr. Jayanth were present.

These bus shelters are spoilers of Mysuru's beauty

By S.B. Devaraj

Mysuru, Mar. 30- The once good looking bus shelters which were built at specific spots along city bus routes are now in such a bad shape that they are not only failing to provide shelter to the commuters but are also spoiling the beauty of the city because of their poor or lack of maintenance.

These bus shelters, which provided good protection from rain and sun to commuters for a few years and looked attractive with beautiful advertisements, have now become eyesores. The roof of many shelters look vulnerable and may fall down anytime, advertisement boards have gone haywire, tubelights and dangling electrical wires present a scary sight at many places, railing are getting rusted and the benches provided for commuters to sit are also not in good shape either.

Bus shelters near Government Ayurveda Hospital Circle on Sayyaji Rao Road, Irwin Road, near V.V. Puram Police Station on Vontikoppal Temple Road, KRS Road opposite Venkataramanaswamy Temple, Dasappa Circle near Mandovi Motors, near Saraswathipuram Fire Brigade, near B.M. Hospital, Highway Circle and many other shelters also unveil ugliness of one form or the other. Except for some bus shelters which are built recently under the grants from Legislators and MP, most of them have become useless. Lack of proper hygiene in these shelters has forced commuters to stand outside in hot sun and wait for buses.

Reasons for poor maintenance

Based on the demands of KSRTC officials, Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) provided bus shelters for commuters but it is not possible for the City Corporation to construct and maintain hundreds of bus shelters. Because of this, the MCC, in association with certain advertising agencies, built bus shelters and after few years of maintenance by the agencies they are handed over to the MCC.

Thereafter, lack of proper maintenance result in the utter bad state of the bus shelters which continue till arrangements are made to repair them or entering into fresh agreement with some other advertising agency. Same thing applies to the shelters built by Legislators and MP.

Slow Implementation

It is learnt that KSRTC officials had given a list of the required bus shelters along the city bus routes to the MCC and following this, officials of KSRTC, Police Department and MCC jointly inspected the locations and construction of 54 bus shelters at various locations, with modern design were approved at the MCC Council meeting. Based on the locations suggested by the public and local Corporators, approval for another 15 bus shelters was obtained from the Council and tenders were invited for the construction of a total 69 bus shelters. Work order has been issued for the construction to Bangaluru-based OOH Advertising Services Pvt. Ltd. under Build Own Operate and Transfer (BOOT) system.

Of these, work order for the construction of 35 bus shelters with modern design at KEB Circle in Dattagalli, Netaji Circle, Triveni Circle in Dattagalli 3rd Stage, Kalyana Mantap in Gokulam, Maharani's College on JLB Road, Mandovi Motors on KRS Road, Corner House at Kuvempunagar, Kamakshi Hospital, Ballal Circle, near Jayanagar Railway Under-Bridge, Ramaswamy Circle, RTO (West) Circle, Jayanagar, Highway Circle, one each near Shubhodini Choultry and opposite the burial grounds near CITB choultry, Sub-Urban Bus Stand, Hardinge Circle, near Mysuru University Vice-Chancellor's residence on JLB Road, Siddappa Square, Agrahara Circle and 2 each near Railway Station and Akashavani Circle in Yadavagiri was issued about a year ago to OOH Advertising Services and the construction work is in progress at Jayanagar. The work of other bus shelters will commence only after the Jayanagar bus shelter is approved by the City Corporation.

Conditions imposed

Shelters should be constructed by the agency, manage it for 5 years and hand over the bus shelters in good condition to the MCC. The bus shelters should be constructed 3 ft. away from footpath and the concerned agency will be solely responsible for any accident, mishap, injuries and loss of life during the maintenance period.

No compensation is provided if the shelter is demolished because of road widening or for any other reason. Shelter should be constructed within 90 days of obtaining plan and design approval and thereafter maintain the same till the period mentioned in the tender. Prior to this, getting NOC from DCP (Crime and Traffic) is made mandatory. Forty percent of space in the bus shelter should be provided for giving information to the public including 4x5 ft. space indicated by KSRTC. These conditions could be the reason for the slow progress of the project.

Whatever is the reason, people of Mysuru want to see these bus shelters with the proposed modern design at the earliest. If it is going to be a financial burden to the MCC, the proposed project should be implemented at the earliest on BOOT basis. MCC Commissioner and people's representatives need to be proactive in the implementation of the bus shelter project.

Meanwhile, Mahesh, MCC Executive Engineer, has disclosed that the Corporation has issued work order on BOOT basis to construct bus shelters to OOH Advertisers Pvt. Ltd. after inspecting the locations of these shelters. Model bus shelter is almost complete in Jayanagar and we have to examine whether the rules and conditions stated in the work order are followed. It is only after that, the remaining construction works will start at other places also, he added. "We have information about old and spoilt bus shelters and they have also been included in the new project list," Mahesh added▪

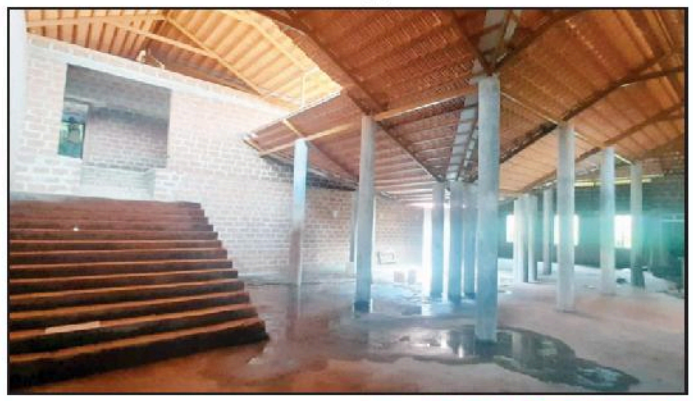
Kodava Heritage Centre to be ready by July-end

Says Kannada and Culture Minister Sunil Kumar in Legislative Council



Veena Achaiah

Sunil Kumar

Madikeri, Mar. 30 (PS&BCT)- The Kodava Heritage Centre that is being constructed at Vidyanagar near Madikeri will be completed by the end of this July.

This was stated by the Kannada and Culture Minister Sunil Kumar in the Legislative Council on behalf of Tourism Minister Anand Singh. Sunil Kumar was replying to the question raised by Congress MLC from Kodagu Shantheyanda Veena Achaiah.

The Minister said that the Kodava Heritage Centre works were initially taken up at an estimated cost of Rs. 2.68 crore and as the costs have escalated, the State Government revised the cost to Rs. 3,30,45,110.

Mentioning that COVID-induced lockdown, unseasonal rains and shortage of labour on most of the days in 2020 had resulted in the inordinate delay of the project, he said most of the physical works have been completed and the State was awaiting a work completion certificate from the contractors.

Taking objection to the Minister's casual statement, Veena Achaiah told him sarcastically that the rainy season had already started in Kodagu and if needed, the works could be completed next year.

She was indicating the much-delayed project that has seen many roadblocks though the idea was conceptualised way back in early 2000 when Rathi Vinay Jha, an IAS Officer (now retired) from the Codanda family, was the Secretary, Ministry of Tourism, Government of India, in New Delhi.

However, the Minister took the sarcasm in his stride and told the MLC that the State Government had tremendous respect for the Kodavas and their rich heritage. "Works will be completed by the end of July and we will hold a gala event to mark the occasion. Even you will be invited," the Minister said.

From 2004 to 2022

Later speaking to newsmen, MLC Veena Achaiah said that she has been raising the issue of the Kodava Heritage Centre for the last three years and has been getting similar stock replies. The foundation stone was laid on Sept. 21, 2011.

"The project was sanctioned by the Centre in 2004 and the works started in 2013 and Rs. 2.68 crore has been spent so far. The contractor has got Rs. 1.70 crore and he abandoned the project midway and now steps have been taken to recover money from him and also blacklist him. Rs. 2 crore has been wasted in the project and as Kodagu is a tiny district, it is always neglected. Even whatever minimum grants that are released are not utilised properly," she rued.

Minister Anand Singh outlines details

Minister for Tourism Anand Singh said that in the Kodava Heritage Centre, there will be two Ainmanes (traditional Kodava ancestral homes) for which the roofing has been completed along with the construction of an entry point, kitchen, steps, amphitheatre, library, doors and windows.

Electrification has been completed and a 25 KV transformer has also been installed. "Rs. 47.91 lakh has to be released. Rs. 29 lakh has been released as the fifth instalment for the works and the contractor has to provide the certificate for fund utilisation, photos of works completed, quality inspection by a third-party agency and other documents," he said and added that the remaining amount will be released after the contractor fulfils all mandatory requirements.

Wend

Pronunciation: WEND.
Meaning: Wend means "to direct one's course" or "to proceed on." Synonyms of the word are travel and direct.
Origin: Wend is related to the verb wind, which means, among other things, "to follow a series of curves and turns." Wend itself comes from Old English wendan, referring to turning or changing direction or position. Its use in senses related to going or moving along a course has lent the English verb go its past tense form went (as a past tense form of wend, went has long since been superseded by wended).
Example: "While returning to the airport in Amman, wending our way north on Highway 35, we had a chance to reflect on our trip." — Daniel Rodrigues

THE ODD WORD

Wanze

To decrease; to waste away.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Worlds apart

Meaning: Worlds apart means: Greatly separated by differing attitudes, needs, opinions, or temperaments.
Origin: Scholars are not certain of the origin of the idiom "worlds apart". The term is closely related to the late 13th century Latin distantia, which is an expression of remoteness or a "standing apart". By the late 14th century, the figurative meaning of remoteness grew to include space between places or things, which is essentially the same meaning as the more modern idiom "worlds apart."
Example: "They are worlds apart. I can't imagine how they ever decided to get married."
